

When buying Olive Oil be sure to get
"Gradi & Domenici"
 OF LUCCA, ITALY
 Nothing Better on the Market

W. H. HAHN COMPANY
 For the Best in Fuel of All Kinds.
 CERRILLOS LUMP. ANTHRACTITE, ALL SIZES.
 GALLUP LUMP. KINDLING AND MILL WOOD.
 GALLUP EGG. BRICK AND PLASTERING LIME.
 SANTA FE BRICK.
 PHONE 91.

Wolf's Premium Flour
 Made From Finest Hard Wheat
 For Bread Making It Has No Superior
 ASK YOUR GROCER

Crescent Hardware Co.

STOVES AND RANGES
 PRACTICAL PLUMBERS AND TINNERS
 AGENTS FOR
 Marsh Simplex and Advance Duplex Steam Pumps.
 318 West Central Avenue
 Phone 315

Use Kirk's Flake White Soap
 Cheapest and Best Soap
 on the Market Today

CONSOLIDATED LIQUOR & KEG BEER COMPANY
 Offices Cor. First and Copper

Everything in Our Line. Write for Illustrated Catalog.
 LEMP'S KEG BEER A SPECIALTY
 Phone 138

P. O. Box 318

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR
FORT Canned Vegetables
BRAND and Fruits

The Finest and Most Delicious on the Market

BOYS' SUITS

With two pairs of bloomer trousers in all the nobby gray
 and brown shades

$5.00

and upwards.

Mail Orders Promptly Filled.

E. L. WASHBURN
COMPANY

SANDOVAL COUNTY INSTITUTE.
 The Sandoval County Teachers' Institute will be held at Bernallillo in the Sisters of Loretto school commencing on June 26, 1911, at 8 a.m. and continuing four weeks. Mrs. Alexia Coronel of the Raton city schools will have charge. The tuition will be $2.00.

BONIFACIO MONToya,
 Superintendent of Schools.

If you want a stylish nurse and nurse, see W. L. Trimble, 115 North
 Second St., Phone No. 2.

DUKE CITY CLEANERS

We clean hair, men's and women's clothing, rugs, curtains, draperies, etc. 229 West Gold. Phone 446.

Promptness Our Motto.

MATTHEW'S ICE CREAM

Sets the standard for absolute purity as well as delicious flavor. Insist on being served with Matthew's only.

PHONE 420.

Stop at the Cool Corner

That's the corner of Fourth and Central—on the way to the postoffice. It's the pleasantest resting place in town these hot days—and we'll take delight in proving to you that we serve the most delicious.

Soda and Ices

Schutts'
 Wholesale & Retail Confectioners
 FOURTH AND CENTRAL

CORSETS TOMORROW ONLY

A fine line of high grade Corsets, made of Silk Embroidered Batiste, selling regularly from $6.50 to $7.50, your choice, tomorrow only

Each $2.95 Each

Where Quality
 Meets Price

Rosenwald's

Where Quality
 Meets Price

Crollott & Waters

FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS—Lady Assistant.
 111 West Lead; Phone, Night or Day, 578.

musical and literary program will be rendered and a collation provided.

Miss Violet De Tuilio will leave this week for California to spend the summer in Los Angeles and vicinity. Joseph E. Suter, former councilman for Bernalillo county, left for the Algodones oil fields this morning to look things over. He will return in a couple of days.

Miss Melena Mandell of St. Charles, La., arrived on the Limited today to be the guest of her uncle, Mike Mandell of this city, and his family during the summer months.

Arthur Henry left for a three or four weeks' outing at Windsor's, on the upper Pecos this morning, completely equipped for a big catch of trout.

Jack Drummond and Frank A. Martin are scheduled to leave today to the Pecos where they will join the Albuquerque colony for a week or ten days.

A number of boarding pupils of St. Vincent's academy, accompanied by several of the instructors, returned to their homes in various portions of the territory this morning.

Mrs. S. R. Burke and children, Simon and Helen, of Mountainair, leave today to spend the summer in California. Mr. Burke accompanied them as far as Albuquerque.

Captain Clark M. Carr and family left this morning overnight for the Denver Springs. The Carrs are accompanied by Miss Mary Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Kelly.

L. K. McGaffey, prominently associated with real estate activities in Roswell, arrived in Albuquerque yesterday on a business visit. Mr. McGaffey is a brother of A. B. McGaffey of Albuquerque.

Jay Allen returned to Boom Camp twelve miles from Domingo, N. M., this morning after a visit of several days in this city. He is associated with the cutting enterprise of the Santa Barbara Tie and Pole company.

I. B. Wishill arrived in the city from Algodones yesterday on a business mission.

A. Eichwald, a general merchant of Cuba, N. M., arrived in the city yesterday on business.

E. R. Paul, treasurer of the New Mexico Central, arrived in the city from Santa Fe yesterday.

Misses Mary A. George and Grace George are visitors in the city from Madrid. They arrived yesterday.

R. Romero was an arrival in the city yesterday. His home is in Tucumcari, N. M.

Mrs. Louis Chernis and son returned to El Paso this morning. They have been visiting Mrs. Sigridt Gransfeld.

W. F. Hogan, manager of the Ortiz Mine syndicate, arrived in the city from Cerrillos yesterday to remain a short while on business.

Rodney Stover and family are among the departures for the upper Pecos river. They will spend the summer at their cottage there.

W. C. McDonald, president of the Carrizozo Trading company and manager of the Carrizozo Cattle Ranch Co., arrived in the city this morning from Carrizozo to attend the meeting of the Democrats.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

Mrs. Sturges, widow of the late Frank E. Sturges, her son, Lloyd, James Martin, Sam D. Stevens and Mrs. Essinger, who accompanied the body of Mr. Sturges to Los Angeles, returned to Albuquerque this morning. Mr. Sturges' body was cremated at 3 o'clock last Saturday afternoon in the Los Angeles crematory in Rose Hill cemetery.

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A

William Hesselden of the Superior Lumber company, is the only Albuquerque, as far as we know, who has received a coronation favor, direct from London. Hesselden is displaying a red, white and blue flag with the gold coronation emblems affixed. Hesselden, who is a nephew of Wallace Hesselden, has been in America about a year and a half and intends to become an American citizen as quickly as possible.

At the meeting of the Modern Woodmen held last night, it was decided to hold an entertainment for all Woodmen, whether members of the local lodge or not, and for the Royal Neighbors next Wednesday. A</p